

Wolfgang M. Paul

Wolfgang M. Paul, Born in Vienna in 1947, and after studies in Vienna and London, Paul joined the Austrian Foreign Service in 1975. Virtually from day one as Ambassador to Israel (1997 - 2002), and with a distinct focus on public diplomacy, he worked to establish closer ties with Yad Vashem, survivors' associations and Israeli authorities to promote historical awareness in Austria and, at the same time, to support all on-going efforts in both countries to raise the level of mutual understanding and bilateral cooperation, wherever possible.
